Calls on shares

16. i) The Board may, from time to time, make calls upon the members in respect of any monies unpaid on their shares (whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium) and not by the conditions of allotment thereof made payable at fixed times:

Provided that no call shall exceed one-fourth of the nominal value of the share or be payable at less than one month from the date fixed for the payment of the last preceding call.

ii) Each member shall, subject to receiving at least fourteen days' notice specifying the time or times and place of payment, pay to the company, at the time or times and place so specified, the amount called on his shares.

iii) A call may be revoked or postponed at the discretion of the Board.

iv) The option or right to make call on shares shall not be given to any person except with sanction of the Company in General Meetings. That is, it may delegate power to make calls on shares subject to approval of the shareholders in a general meeting of the company.

17. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Board authorizing the call was passed and may be required to be paid by installments.

18. The Joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof.

19 i) If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment thereof, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest thereon from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment at ten per cent. Per annum or at such lower rate, If any, as the Board may determine.

ii) The Board shall be at liberty to waive payment of any such interest wholly or in part.

20. i) Any sum which by the terms of issue of a share becomes payable on allotment or at any fixed date, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, shall for the purposes of these regulations, be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which by the terms of issue such sum becomes payable.

ii) In case of non-payment of such sum, all the relevant provisions of these regulations as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

21. The Board-

a) may, if it thinks fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the monies uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him; and

b) upon all or any of the monies so advanced, may (until the same would, but for such advance, become presently payable) pay interest at such rate not exceeding, unless the company in general meeting shall otherwise direct, twelve per cent per annum, as may be agreed upon between the Board and the member paying the sum in advance but shall not confer a right to dividend or to participate in profits.

Transfer of shares

22.i) The company shall use a Common form of transfer. The instrument of transfer of any share in the Company shall be executed by or on behalf of both the transferor and transferee.

ii) The transferor shall be deemed to remain a holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the register of members in respect thereof.

23.The Board may, subject to the right of appeal conferred by section 58 decline to register-

a) the transfer of a share, not being a fully paid share, to a person of whom they do not Approve; or

b) any transfer of shares on which the company has a lien.

24. The Board may decline to recognise any instrument of transfer unless-

- a) the instrument of transfer is in the form as prescribed in rules made under subsection (1) section 56;
- b) the instrument of transfer is accompanied by the certificate of the shares to which relates, and such other evidence as the Board may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer, and
- c) the instrument of transfer is in respect of only one class of shares.

25. On giving not less than seven days previous notice in accordance with section 91 and rules made there under, the registration of transfers may be suspended at such times and for such periods as the Board may from time to time determine.

Provided that such registration shall not be suspended for more than thirty days at any one time or for more than forty-five days in the aggregate in any year.

26. Subject to the provisions of Section 59 of Companies Act, 2013, the Board may decline to register any transfer of Shares on such grounds as it think fit in the benefit of the company (notwithstanding that the proposed transferee be already a Member), but in such case it shall, within two (2) months from the date the instrument of transfer was lodged with the Company, send to the transferee and the transferor notice of the refusal to register such transfer giving reasons for such refusal. Provided that registration of a transfer shall not be refused on the ground of the transferor being either alone or jointly with any other person or persons indebted to the Company on any account whatsoever.

Transmission of Shares

27.i) On the death of a member, the survivor or survivors where the member was a joint holder, and his nominee or nominees or legal representatives where he was a sole holder, shall be the only persons recognised by the company as having any title to his interest in the shares.

ii) Nothing in clause (i) shall release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability in respect of any share which had been jointly held by him with other persons.

28. i) Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or insolvency of a member may, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time properly be required by the board and subject as hereinafter provided, elect, either-

a) to be registered himself as holder of the share; or

(b) to make such transfer of the share as the deceased or insolvent member could have made.

ii) The Board shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as it would have had, if the deceased or insolvent member had transferred the share before his death or insolvency.

29. i) If the person so becoming entitled shall elect to be registered as holder of the share himself, he shall deliver or send to the company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects.

ii) If the person aforesaid shall elect to transfer the share, he shall testify his election by executing a transfer of the share.

iii) All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of these regulations relating to the right to transfer and the registration of transfers of shares shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid as if the death or Insolvency of the member had not occurred and the notice or transfer were a transfer signed by that member.

30. A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death or insolvency of the holders shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share, except that he shall not before being registered as a member in respect of the share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the company.

Provided that the Board may, at any time, give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share, and if the notice is not complied with within ninety days, the Board may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses or other monies payable in respect of the share, until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

Right of First Refusal

131. If Promoters are desirous of selling some or all of their Shares otherwise than article 40 then the relevant Promoter shall issue a notice (the "Offer Notice") to existing promoters, (a) offering such Shares (the "Offered Shares") to existing promoters, and (b) indicating the INR price at which the relevant Promoter is desirous of selling the Offered Shares ("Offer Price"). The Offer Notice shall not set out any conditions for the sale of the Offered Shares other than any conditions set out in these Articles or required to comply with Applicable Law.

The number of Offered Shares forming the subject of an Offer Notice taken together with the number of Shares offered forming the subject of any offer notice issued by the other Promoters or their Affiliates ("Affiliate Offered Shares"), shall not be more than the maximum number of Shares which could be acquired by existing promoters, without triggering an obligation to launch a Takeover Offer (after taking into consideration inter alia the Shares, if any, acquired by existing promoters pursuant to Article 31 .

<sup>132</sup>. If the Promoters wish to sell the Offered Shares by way of a Private Sale to an identified Third Party, then the Offer Notice in addition to setting out the Offer Price and the number of Offered Shares shall also contain the identity and details of the Third Party and the Offer Price per share which has been offered by the Third Party.

<sup>133</sup>. Within 15 (fifteen) days of receipt of the Offer Notice by the existing promoters, it may notify the Promoter by way of a written notice:

1. of its acceptance of the offer contained in the Offer Notice (“Acceptance Notice”);
or
2. of its rejection of the offer contained in the Offer Notice (“Rejection Notice”).

<sup>133</sup>. a) An Acceptance Notice shall constitute a valid, legally binding and enforceable agreement between existing promoters and the relevant Promoter, for the relevant Promoter to sell and for existing promoters to purchase the Offered Shares. If permitted by Applicable Law, the sale and purchase of the Offered Shares pursuant to each Offer Notice shall be completed as a block deal pursuant to SEBI Circular CIR/MRD/DP/118/2017 dated October 26, 2017, as modified from time to time, on or prior to the seventh day following the later of (i) Acceptance Notice or (ii) receipt by the Promoter of the approvals required by them, if any, to undertake the sale of the Offered Shares on the ROFR Completion Date (as defined below); provided that if such seventh day is not a Business Day, then the purchase of the Offered Shares shall occur no later than the immediately following Business Day (“ROFR Completion Date”). Provided further that in the event that the Offered Shares cannot be acquired by existing promoters by way of a block deal including on account of any prohibitions or limitations prescribed under Applicable Law, the sale and purchase of the Offered Shares pursuant to the Offer Notice shall be completed as a Private Sale on a spot delivery basis on the ROFR Completion Date, free from any Encumbrances. existing promoters and the Promoter shall take such actions as necessary to effect the sale and purchase of the Offered Shares on the ROFR Completion Date, including (a) by obtaining such approvals as may be required by them respectively or making such public disclosure of information as are required to complete the sale and purchase as contemplated herein and (b) as far as the Promoter are concerned, providing such information as may be requested by the company to make any filings and comply with Applicable Law including details in relation to their respective bank and dematerialised accounts, and customary information or confirmations as may be required by the custodian of the company or information required to calculate the tax required to be withheld, if any, from any payments to the Promoters.

The aggregate amount payable by the company for the Offered Shares shall be an amount equal to the Offer Price per Share multiplied by the number of Offered Shares.

<sup>133</sup>. b) If the company issues a Rejection Notice or does not respond to the Offer Notice within the time period set out in Article 33 or does not complete the purchase of the Offered Shares on the ROFR Completion Date in breach of these Articles, the relevant

Promoter shall have the right to:

- a) sell all the Offered Shares by way of one or more Market Sales at the Offer Price or a price higher than the Offer Price set out in the Offer Notice, if the Offer Notice has been issued in accordance with Article 31 and Article 33; or
- b) sell all the Offered Shares to the Third Party set out in the Offer Notice at the Offer Price or a price higher than the Offer Price and on terms and conditions that are not more favorable than as set out in the Offer Notice, if the Offer Notice has been issued in accordance with Article 33, in each case within a period of 180 (one hundred and eighty) days from the date of the Rejection Notice or from the expiry of the time period set out in Article 33 or, if the purchase of the Offered Shares on the ROFR Completion Date has not been completed by the company in breach of these Articles, from the ROFR Completion Date, failing which the relevant Promoter shall not be entitled to sell the Offered Shares without once again following the process set out in this Article 31 to Article 33.

134A. If the Promoter wishes to issue an Offer Notice at an Offer Price for such number of Shares greater than the maximum number of Shares which could be acquired by the existing promoter: (i) without triggering an obligation to launch a Takeover Offer (after taking into consideration inter alia the Shares, if any, acquired by existing promoter pursuant to Article 31 and any Shares acquired by existing promoter from any of the other Promoters or Affiliates at the Offer Price; or (ii) by availing an exemption from an Open Offer under Regulation 10 of the Takeover Regulations, such Promoter may issue a written notice to the company in this regard (the "Promoter Sale Notice"). The Promoter Sale Notice shall set out the number of Shares that such Promoter wishes to sell (the "Promoter Sale Notice Shares"), the Offer Price for the Promoter Sale Notice Shares and the details set out in Article 32 if the Promoter Sale Notice Shares are sought to be Transferred by way of a Private Sale or to an identified Third Party. The Promoter Sale Notice shall not set out any conditions for the sale of the Promoter Sale Notice Shares other than any conditions set out in these Articles or required to comply with Applicable Law. Following the receipt of the Promoter Sale Notice, the company may, within 15 (fifteen) days of receipt of the Promoter Sale Notice by the company, notify such Promoter by way of written notice:

- a) that it shall: (i) purchase such number of the Promoter Sale Notice Shares that can be acquired by the company either (i) without triggering an obligation of the company to trigger an Open Offer under the Takeover Regulations or (ii) by availing an exemption from an Open Offer under Regulation 10 of the Takeover Regulations ("Promoter Purchase Shares"), following which the Promoter Purchase Shares shall be purchased by the company in accordance with the provisions of Article 31 to Article 33 and (ii) upon issuance of a written notice by the company or the Promoters, purchase the remaining Shares forming the Promoter Sale Notice Shares ("Remaining Shares"), within a period of 3 (three) months from the later of (i) the date on which the company can acquire the Remaining Shares, and (ii) the date on which the Promoters receive the approvals, if any, required by them to undertake the sale and purchase of the Remaining Shares to the company (“Extension Period”) without triggering a requirement for the company to make a Takeover Offer at the Extension Price (“Promoter Purchase Shares Notice”). Provided however that during such Extension Period, the company and /or existing promoter shall not acquire additional Shares of the Company in such manner as it would preclude the company from acquiring the Remaining Shares. The company and /or existing promoter shall take such actions as necessary to effect the sale and purchase of the Offered Shares on the ROFR Completion Date, including by obtaining such approvals as may be required by them respectively or making such public disclosure of information as are required to complete the sale and purchase as contemplated herein and (b) as far as the Promoters are concerned, providing such information as may be requested by the company to make any filings and comply with Applicable Law including details in relation to their respective bank and dematerialised accounts, and customary information or confirmations as may be required by the custodian of the company or information required to calculate the tax required to be withheld, if any, from any payments to the Promoters; or

- b) of its intention not to purchase any of the Promoter Sale Notice Shares (“Promoter Sale Notice Shares Rejection Notice”).

<sup>134</sup>B. If the company does not issue the Promoter Sale Notice Shares Rejection Notice or does not respond to the Promoter Sale Notice within the period of 15 (fifteen) days of the receipt of the Promoter Sale Notice or does not acquire all or any of the Promoter Sale Notice Shares as per the timelines set out in Article 33 in breach of these Articles, the relevant Promoter shall have the right to sell the Promoter Sale Notice Shares at price equal to or higher than the Offer Price set out in the Promoter Sale Notice within a period of 180 (one hundred and eighty) days from the 15th day of the date of the Promoter Sale Notice or the expiry of timelines set out in Article 33, failing which the relevant Promoter shall only be entitled to sell the Promoter Shares in accordance with the process set out in Article 31. Provided, however, in the event that the company fails to acquire the Remaining Shares as per the timelines set out in Article 33, the Promoters shall be entitled to sell the Remaining Shares at any price (and not merely the price set out in the Promoter Sale Notice) and to any person (and not merely to the person, if any, identified in the Promoter Sale Notice) within the aforementioned 180 (one hundred and eighty) day period.

<sup>135</sup>. If a delisting application made by the company being approved by the Board in accordance with the provisions of Regulation 8(1)(a) of the Delisting Regulations within 6 months of the date on which the company acquired Shares from the Promoters pursuant to exercise of a Put Option or a Call Option, as the case may be, as set out in this Article following which the Shares of the Company are delisted in accordance with the provisions of the Delisting Regulations at a price (the “Delisting Price”), which is higher than (a) the Put Option Price, in case the purchase of the Promoter Shares was in accordance with Article 31, and the Put Option Price was lower than the prevailing market price of the Shares on the Put Option Date; or (b) the Call Option Price, in case the purchase of the Promoter Shares was in accordance with Article 31; then the company shall pay the Promoters an amount equivalent to the difference between the Delisting Price on the one hand, and the Put Option Price or the Call Option Price, as applicable, on the other hand per Promoter Share acquired by the company. Subject to receipt of all necessary applicable approvals from the relevant Governmental Authorities, payment required to be made by the company pursuant to this Article shall be made within 5 (five) Business Days of the date on which payment is made to the public shareholders pursuant to the delisting offer. The payment of such amounts to the Promoters shall be subject to Applicable Law and applicable taxes.

Transfer Restrictions

<sup>136</sup>. No Shares or any interest in the Shares, or any voting rights in relation to the Company, shall be acquired by the Promoters either by themselves or through 'persons acting in concert' or deemed to be acting in concert with them, till such time as may be mutually agreed to between the Promoters without the prior written consent of all promoter.

<sup>137</sup>. Promoter shall at their sole discretion make commercially reasonable efforts to acquire the maximum number of shares they are permitted to acquire within creeping acquisition limits under the Takeover Regulations within a period of one year of any fresh issue made by the company. Subject to the above, Promoter or "persons acting in concert" or deemed to be acting in concert with it, shall have the right to acquire in one or more tranches, such number of Shares that does not exceed 2.5 % of the Share Capital. For the avoidance of doubt it is clarified that there are no other restrictions on acquiring Shares at any time, save as provided in this Article.

<sup>138</sup>. Notwithstanding anything contained in these Articles, the Promoters shall not directly or indirectly Transfer any of their Shares in the Company, or any interest in such Shares, except in the manner set out in the Articles Right of First Refusal and agreed to between the Promoters and any purported Transfer or attempt to Transfer any Shares shall be null and void ab-initio.

<sup>139</sup>. Notwithstanding anything contained in these Articles, the Promoters shall not be entitled to create an Encumbrance on the Promoter Shares, including as security for any loans or other financing facilities availed by the Promoters, without the prior written consent of the company. If the Promoters wish to create an Encumbrance on any Promoter Shares, the Promoters shall enter into good faith discussions with the company in this regard. Other than any Shares acquired in accordance with the Provisions of this article, the Promoters shall not, directly or indirectly, acquire any Shares without the prior written consent of the entire promoter.

140. The Promoters may Transfer the Promoter Shares under prior written intimation to the company of at least 3(three) Business Days, to an Affiliate (together with the rights attached thereto) subject to (i) such transferee Affiliate executing and delivering a promoter's deed of adherence in a form mutually agreed to between the all the Promoters, as a condition of such Transfer and; (ii) the Promoters remains jointly and severally liable with such Affiliate transferee as mutually agreed with all the Promoters. Provided that, if such Affiliate should subsequently cease to qualify as an Affiliate, then the Promoters (including such Affiliate) shall procure that, prior to its ceasing to qualify as a Affiliate, such Affiliate Transfers the entire legal and beneficial interest and title in and to the Promoter Shares held by such Affiliate to another Person who is an Affiliate and complies with the provisions of this article in respect of such Transfer. Provided further that no such deed of adherence shall be required for transfer of shares amongst the Promoters inter-se. It is further clarified that there shall be no restriction on the Transfer of Shares inter-se amongst the Promoters.

The Promoters agree that the Transfer restrictions in these Articles shall not be capable of being avoided by the holding of the Shares indirectly through a company or other entity that can itself be sold in order to dispose of an interest in Shares free of such restrictions.

Forfeiture of Shares

41. If a member fails to pay any call, or installment of a call, on the day appointed for payment thereof, the Board may, at any time thereafter during such time as any part of the call or installment remains unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or installment as is unpaid, together with any interest which may have accrued.

42. The notice aforesaid shall-

(a) name a further day (not being earlier than the expiry of fourteen days from the date of service of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made; and

(b) State that, in the event of non-payment on or before the day so named, the shares in respect of which the call was made shall be liable to be forfeited.

43. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which the notice has been given may, at any time thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect.

44. i) A forfeited share may be sold or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the Board thinks fit.

ii) At any time before a sale or disposal as aforesaid, the Board may cancel the forfeiture on such terms as it thinks fit.

45 i) A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares, but shall, notwithstanding the forfeiture, remain liable to pay to the company all monies which, at the date of forfeiture, were presently payable by him to the company in respect of the shares.

ii) The liability of such person shall cease if and when the company shall have received payment in full of all such monies in respect of the shares.

46.i) A duly verified declaration in writing that the declarant is a director, the manager or the secretary, of the company, and that a share in the company has been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share.

ii) The company may receive the consideration, if any, given for the share on any sale or disposal thereof and may execute a transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of.

(iii) The transferee shall thereupon be registered as the holder of the share.

(iv) The transferee shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, if any nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the share.

47. The provisions of these regulations as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of nonpayment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

Alteration of Capital

48. The company may, from time to time, by ordinary resolution increase the share capital by such sum, to be divided into shares of such amount, as may be specified in the resolution. The Authorised Share Capital shall be as per the clause V (a) of Memorandum of Association of the company<sup>1</sup>.

49. Subject to the provisions of section 61, the company may, by ordinary resolution-

a) increase its authorised share capital by such amount as it thinks expedient.

b) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares;

c) convert all or any of its fully paid-up shares into stock, and reconvert that stock into fully paid-up shares of any denomination;

d) sub-divide its existing shares or any of them into shares of smaller amount than is fixed by the memorandum;

e) cancel any shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person.

50. Where shares are converted into stock,-

(a) the holders of stock subject to the same or any part thereof in the same manner as, and subject to the same regulations under which, the shares from which the stock arose might before the conversion have been transferred or as near thereto circumstances admit:

Provided that the Board may, from time to time, fix the minimum amount of stock transferable, so, however, that such minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose.

(b) the holders of stock shall according to the amount of stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, voting at meetings of the company and other matters, as if they held the shares from which the stock arose, but no such privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividend and profits of the company and in the assets on the winding up) shall be conferred by an amount of stock which would not, if existing in shares, have conferred that privilege or advantage.

(c) such of the regulations of the company as are applicable to paid up shares shall apply to stock and the words "Share" and "shareholder" in those regulations shall include "stock" and "stock-holder" respectively.

51. The company may, by special resolution, reduce in any manner and with, and subject to any Incident authorised and consent required by law, -

(a) its share capital;

(b) any capital redemption reserve account or

(c) any share premium account.

Capitalisation of profits

52 (i) The company in general meeting may, upon the recommendation of the Board resolve-

(a) that it is desirable to capitalise any part of the amount for the time being standing to the credit of any of the company's reserve accounts, or to the credit of the profit and loss account, Securities Premium Accounts or otherwise available for distribution; and

(b) that such sum be accordingly set free for distribution in the manner specified in clause (ii) amongst the members who would have been entitled thereto, if distributed by way of dividend and in the same proportions.

(ii) The sum aforesaid shall not be paid in cash but shall be applied, subject to the provision contained in clause (iii), either in or towards-

A. paying up any amount for the time being unpaid on any shares held by such members respectively;

B. paying up in full, unissued shares of the company to be allotted and distributed, credited as fully paid up, to and amongst such members in the proportions aforesaid;

C. partly in the way specified in sub clause (A) and partly in that specified in sub-clause (B).

(iii) A securities premium account and a capital redemption reserve account may, for the purposes of this regulation, be applied in the paying up of unissued shares to be issued to members of the company as fully paid bonus shares;

(iv) The Board shall give effect to the resolution passed by the company in pursuance of this regulation.

53.i) whenever such a resolution as aforesaid shall have been passed, the Board shall-

a) make all appropriations and applications of the undivided profits resolved to be capitalised thereby, and all allotments and issues of fully paid shares if any; and

b) Generally do all acts and things required to give effect thereto.

ii) The Board shall have power-

a) to make such provisions, by the issue of fractional certificates or by payment in cash or otherwise as it thinks fit, for the case of shares becoming distributable in fractions;

b) to authorize any person to enter, on behalf of all the members entitled thereto, into an agreement with the company providing for the allotment to them respectively, credited as fully paid-up, of any further shares to which they may be entitled upon such capitalisation, or as the case may require, for the payment by the company on their behalf, by the application thereto of their respective proportions of profits resolved to be capitalised, of the amount or any part of the amounts remaining unpaid on their existing shares;

ii) Any agreement made under such authority shall be effective and binding on such members.
